

Hutton Horticultural Society held their 65th Annual Autumn Show at St Peter's Church hall on Saturday 10th September 2016 with over 220 staged exhibits. The judges commented on the very high standard of exhibits staged by members despite the extreme hot weather during the months of July and August. Top spot at the show with best exhibit went to Ralph Ball with his vase of "Cameo" Water Lily Dahlias. Family exhibitors Cheryl, Dan and Daisy Court won best Vegetable, flower and child exhibit respectively. Husband and wife team Steve and Sue Thomas gained highest points in Fruit and Cookery Sections. Roses were very difficult to exhibit due to the warm weather which did not deter Lou Hunt who won the Oldall Anniversary Vase for highest points Thirteen exhibits of Floral Art were exhibited with best in show awarded to Sheila Pizzala with her interpretation of "Antiquity" Prizes were presented by Sue Thomas General Secretary of the Society. Proceeds from donations at the door will be donated to a local charity..
